

Six Degrees of Separation: Our Body

Rev. Dr. Matt Skillen

St. Paul's Church | October 13, 2019

Romans 8:15 (NIV) "I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us."

Romans 8:23 (NIV) ...we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption to so ship, the redemption of our bodies."

Though our spirit has been reconciled _____,
our physical bodies will

not be completely redeemed _____.

Knowing _____, God gives us
_____.

Romans 8: 24 – 25 (NIV) "For in this hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what they already have? But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait patiently."

Patience is _____.

Hope is _____.

Faith is _____.

While our bodies live presently in pain, trauma, grief, brokenness and loss, God seeks to restore His complete image in us. A down payment on that restoration was paid through Jesus's death on the cross, and it was guaranteed when Jesus rose from the grave. This is the assurance we have as we wait patiently for His return.

Six Degrees of Separation: Our Body

Rev. Dr. Matt Skillen

St. Paul's Church | October 13, 2019

Romans 8:15 (NIV) "I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us."

Romans 8:23 (NIV) ...we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption to so ship, the redemption of our bodies."

Though our spirit has been reconciled _____,
our physical bodies will

not be completely redeemed _____.

Knowing _____, God gives us
_____.

Romans 8: 24 – 25 (NIV) "For in this hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what they already have? But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait patiently."

Patience is _____.

Hope is _____.

Faith is _____.

While our bodies live presently in pain, trauma, grief, brokenness and loss, God seeks to restore His complete image in us. A down payment on that restoration was paid through Jesus's death on the cross, and it was guaranteed when Jesus rose from the grave. This is the assurance we have as we wait patiently for His return.

Six Degrees of Separation: Our Body

Rev. Dr. Matt Skillen

St. Paul's Church | October 13, 2019

Romans 8:15 (NIV) "I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us."

Romans 8:23 (NIV) ...we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption to so ship, the redemption of our bodies."

Though our spirit has been reconciled by what Jesus did on the cross, our physical bodies will not be completely redeemed until Jesus Christ returns.

Knowing where we are going, God gives us the strength to get to where we need to be.

Romans 8: 24 – 25 (NIV) "For in this hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what they already have? But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait patiently."

Patience is a fruit of the Spirit.

Hope is a direct result of patience.

Faith is a product of hope and patience.

While our bodies live presently in pain, trauma, grief, brokenness and loss, God seeks to restore His complete image in us. A down payment on that restoration was paid through Jesus's death on the cross, and it was guaranteed when Jesus rose from the grave. This is the assurance we have as we wait patiently for His return.